

The Alberta College of Art + Design (ACAD) is one of only four publicly funded Canadian post-secondary institutions devoted exclusively to the advanced education of visual artists and designers. The college has recently entered into a vital new phase in its development and embraced a new mandate and vision that endorse a model of the institution as a laboratory for experimentation and as a catalyst for cultural development and creative inquiry into the arts and emergent cultural fields.

SESSIONAL FACULTY

ACAD welcomes applications to fill various temporary faculty positions for the 2010-2011 academic year. Offerings may be for the summer, fall, winter and/or spring semesters of 2010-2011.
